WEDNESDAY, DEC. 17, 1884.

THE CITY.

No poultry was offered on the market this morning.

The employees of the Nickel Plate road will be paid next Friday.

The Wabash pay car will not reach this city before Christmas.

Thomas Bradbury, of Pleasant township, is looking for his wife.

The Concordia college will close next Monday for the holiday vacation.

Miss Fisher, of West Washington street went to Indianapolis this morning.

Rev. Webb will assist Bishop Knickerbocker in holding services at Huntington to-night.

"The Pirates of Penzance" will be rehearsed every Monday evening at the Conservatory.

Jim Wilkinson has sued the republican county central committee for buggy hire during the campaign.

The officers at the Wabash freight office are now compelled to remain at work until 10 and 11 o'clock each night.

The round trip fare from Port Wayne to New Orleans is but $16, at least R. T. McDonald purchased a ticket here for that amount.

A. J. Porter lodge, No. 51, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, will give their second annual ball at Arion hall the evening of December 31.

All the trains were late this morning, especially those from the west, where a heavy snow fall occurred. Wabash train 42 was over three hours late.

The sons of Joseph Duplain have disinterred the body of their father and ascertained beyond doubt that it was he who was killed by the Nickel Plate train.

Street Commissioner O'Brien has ordered property owners to clear the snow from sidewalks in front of their homes. By law Mr. O'Brien can compel them to comply.

Col. E. L. Chittenden is urged to be a candidate for congressman from the Second ward next spring. This is popular and is not generally opposed when he seeks an office.

Hon. F. J. Hayden goes to Indianapolis next Monday to get ready for action when the legislature meets. Mr. Hayden will probably support Mr. Jewett for speaker of the house.

Dr. S. O. Metcalf has a significant letter from United States Senator Voorhees. The doctor may get a foreign consularship from President Cleveland and his personal friend, Senator Voorhees, will say a good word for him.

E. W. Cook, treasurer of Kekkong lodge of the National Union insurance company, to-day paid Mrs. W. P. Shaw $3,000, the amount of the insurance on the life of her husband, who was train dispatcher on the Nickel Plate road.

A couple of young ladies, attending a school near Huntington, engaged in a fight and hair-pulling match the other day. The one hurled for Cleveland, when the other, a republican, struck her on the arm with a club, fracturing a bone. Another case of southern methods.

William Gaffney, the trustee of Wayne township, accompanied the county commissioners in their inspection of the county asylum yesterday. Mr. Gaffney says John Wilkinson is the best superintendent of the infirmary every had. Mr. Gaffney went with the county commissioners to the St. Joe hospital to-day.

The rumor is current that a former foreman in one of the departments of the Pittsburg shops induced a couple of men employed under him to become his security for debts, which it is alleged he had incurred in many reckless ways. The man was discharged two months ago and the others are left to stand the loss. It is said the matter will be settled in the courts.

Wm. Dolan, Patrick McHale, C. B. Knowlton and Peter W. Moore, of Logansport, applied to Judge Woods of the United States court, for an order restraining United States Marshal Porter from selling a stock of goods at Decatur, Ill., levied on by John V. Farwell and others. The stock of goods was first traded for by the Electric Light company, but later the Farwells seized the goods. Judge Woods will listen to arguments in the case at Indianapolis December 23. Judge R. S. Taylor, of this city, appears for the Jonney company.

The following Fort Wayne people have visited the exposition or are now at New Orleans: R. T. McDonald, Wm. O'Brien, August Reiling, jr., two other employees of the Jany Electric Light company, Albert S. Bond, in charge of the exhibit of the Fort Wayne Organ company, James F. Kane, connected with the Evening Chronicle, S. E. Morris, representing the Chicago Times, Charles Goodman and John Humber, managers of the Hartkopf museum and A. Trout, of the Fleming road machine. Quite a big party of citizens go to the exposition in February.

Some person fell through a front window in the Empire freight office.

The Flag social at the Baptist church last night was quite a pleasant affair.

There will be a special convocation of Fort Wayne chapter, No. 19, R. A. M., tonight.

J. F. Marquardt and wife, of Tiffin, Ohio, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Kall.

Perry DeHaven is now a Pythian Knight. He was initiated into the mysteries last night.

Harry Marshall, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. T. P. Lessor, left for his home at Chicago last night.

A Washington dispatch says the Indiana public building bills will not be considered by congress at this session.

Mrs. Dan Knecher will entertain the Star social party of the Simpson M. E. church this evening at her home, 461 Calhoun street.

Congressman Lowry has presented a petition from Legnace, Columbia City and Wabashville, for the passage of the Mexican pension bill.

The M. E. Sabbath schools of the city will unite in a grand mass meeting of children in the new college hall next Sabbath afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A pleasant party of the friends of Dr. James S. Gregg assembled last evening at his residence, 178 East Main street, to bring the fifty-fourth anniversary of his birthday.

This evening Murray Hartnett and wife will entertain their friends in honor of Miss Effie Putnam, a pretty and accomplished young lady, who is the guest of Mrs. Hartnett.

A special agent of the Cincinnati Enquirer was in the city last evening. He came here to look into the change in the paper house of A. C. Katt & Co. From this city the gentleman went to Wabash.

A saw and axe were stolen from the home of Walter Works Clark McDermott a night or two ago, and he is now vigorously chasing the thief who tried to pawn the articles at several places without success.

The rumor that forty new engines are to be built in the Pittsburg shops immediately after the holidays seems to be without foundation. Nothing could be learned of its truth this morning in the different departments.

A machinist in Murray's shops, named Paul, has invented an improved roller shaft. The improvement consists in the ability of the roller to stop at once without being compelled to sit down or fall. He will make application for a patent.

R. M. Holman, business manager of the Gazette, and E. A. K. Eckert, of this paper, are in attendance at a meeting of the Western Associated Press association at Detroit, where additional facilities in the gathering and transmission of news will be discussed.

Wm. Keough and Scott Swan returned from Detroit yesterday. A Fort Wayne man saw the "chairmen" go from Detroit to Canada, and hastened home to inquire if anything in the shape of a campaign fund was missing. Messrs. Keough and Swan are the best of friends and were at Detroit to settle for agricultural machines sold in this territory during the year drawing to a close.

A reduction in the charges for post-office money orders sent to Great Britain has been ordered, and the following rates will take effect January 1, 1885: For amounts not exceeding $10, twenty-five cents; over $10 and not exceeding $20, thirty cents; over $20 and not exceeding $30, forty-five cents; over $30 and not exceeding $40, sixty cents; over $40 and not exceeding $50, seventy-five cents.

Said an old railroad official, when commenting on the complimentary remarks recently made in the Indianapolis Journal on A. A. Talmage's management of the Wabash system: "Yes, if they will have the fellow alone, in two years he will have the Wabash system out of the mire. Do you notice," said he, "that there are to-day twenty-two less general officers on the system than when he took hold a few months since? Of course I include assistant general passenger agents, and assistant general freight agents, master mechanics, etc., in the twenty-two officers dropped. To be sure he has consolidated official positions to effect such a change, yet it has been done without in the least impairing the operations of the road."

The trustees of the Bloomington university met at Indianapolis to-day to elect a president to succeed Dr. Mues, who has been a pretty teacher and then resigned. Quite a number of persons have been mentioned, some of whom are candidates, and others merely mentioned by their friends. Among them are ex-State Superintendent Bloss, now of Muncie; Rev. J. S. Jencks, of Indianapolis; President Smart, of Purdue; Prof. Coulter, of Wabash; Col. J. W. Foster and Prof. Grant, of Indianapolis; Dr. J. B. Irwin, of Fort Wayne; Dr. White, formerly of Purdue; Prof. Jones, formerly of the state normal school; Prof. Friedley, of Greenacres; and others. Some of these gentlemen have friends exactly at work in their behalf, but the choice of the board is by no means limited to the list given.

The Indianapolis base ball club will probably join the Union league.

Six Jany electric light towers illuminate the New Orleans exposition grounds.

Chapin & Gure's saloon, formerly at Indianapolis, has removed to Kansas City. Legislative caucuses must now secure new rooms.

The premium list of the Northern Indiana Poultry association will not be issued before January 1. The indications are that the coming exhibition will be the best ever held by the association.

Hon. F. J. Hayden is deluged with letters from applicants for office in the gift of the legislature. Mr. Hayden assigns the epistles to obscurity and will decide on his vote after he personally eyes the situation.

The annual report of the state institute for the blind, which has been lately made, states that during the year 120 pupils received instruction, 68 of them males, and the total expenditures, $27,918.22, leaving an unexpended balance of $5,518.69; value of real estate and personal property, $373,772.01. There was but one death, and the present attendance is 115.

In Judge Taylor's court, at Indianapolis, yesterday, Charles Helwig got judgment for $71.40, against the Pullman Car company. The case has more than local interest, for the decision holds that the sleeping car company is responsible for the goods and chattels of its passengers. Helwig was robbed of money to the amount of the judgment, while going from Council Bluffs, Ia., to St. Louis via the Wabash system of roads.

A dispatch in THE SENTINEL, yesterday, noted the arrest of Orth Sted for failure to appear for trial at Kansas City. Sted is charged with killing Manager Fredericks, of the Theatre Comique. He forfeited his bond in the sum of 7,500 but his friends claim he is sick at Chicago. His bondsmen are Col. W. R. Nelson, managing editor of the Kansas City Star, Capt. E. H. Webster, E. R. Hunter and E. B. in. The students were indemnified by the defendant's father, who is a prominent citizen of Lafayette, Ind.

The College of Physicians and Surgeons, of Chicago, has extended a call to Dr. H. V. Swearingin, this city, to occupy the chair of materia medica and therapeutics of that celebrated institution of medicine. Dr. Swearingin is taking the matter under consideration. Prof. A. Reeves Jackson, A. M., M. D., who testified here recently as an expert in the Ellison-Nickel Plate case, is the president of the above college. Dr. Swearingin is one of the most learned men in the west and THE SENTINEL is glad to see his ability recognized.

The annual report of the state secretary shows commissioners issued to state, judicial and county officers to be $99; to peace justices, $96; notices public and twenty commissioners of deeds, besides 15 pardons, 12 remissions, 12 commutations, 7 requisitions and 57 extradition warrants. Articles of incorporation were filed by 20 railroad companies and 239 manufacturers, mining, banking, insurance, building and loan companies. Cost of state printing, $21,945.42; of 5,331 copies of Revised State statutes printed, all but 466 were distributed.

Last night on complaint of Willing & Son, Officer Jim Sheridan arrested J. A. Walters, an Englishman, who keeps a small junk shop and grocery store on Fairfield avenue, and Jacob Yeager, a German laborer, living at No. 44 Hongland avenue. They are charged with stealing coal from Willing's cars. Both were locked up. Yeager admitted to taking a bucketful of stove coal from a car, but pleaded as an excuse that he had been out of work since the election and that his wife and three children were freezing. Walters has been arrested before, on the charge of stealing iron and brass from the Pittsburg road and keeping a "fence" shop where vicious kids sold their plunder. He was jailed for that offense. The mayor bound both men over to the criminal court. The families of the prisoners will be cared for by the township trustee.

No one can be ill if the blood is pure. Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla root have long been recognized as blood purifiers. They cleanse the blood by the elimination of the many quick poisons, but occasionally use Dr. Guyot's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and you will live to a good old age free from all the distress of mind and body. Many of our best citizens who long suffered from blood impurities by work, kidneys, indigestion, nerves, etc., owe their recovery to the use of this remedy.

The Street Railway company's snow plow was out at 4 o'clock this morning, to clear the track for the cars which leave the station at 6 o'clock.

Nothing Waxed in Vain.

We are told that nothing was made in vain; but what can be said of the fastidious young lady of the period. Just the main thing? How Sarsaparilla is made in Lowell, Mass., where there are more bottles of it sold than of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier, and it is never taken in vain. It purifies the blood, strengthens the system and gives new life and vigor to the entire body. 100 doses.
